

Tea Speakers

Each Thursday 2 p.m. in the Museum Council Chamber

August 1 – Mary Katherine Kilgore will talk about the development of the Eastern Shore Choral Society, it's goals and summarize it's exciting agenda and 2019 – 2020 schedule.

August 8 – Dot Bremer, long-time supporter of the Eastern Shore Institute for Lifelong Learning (ESILL) will tell us about the history of the organization, begun in 1977.

August 15 – Jill Godard and Rusty Godard will give us insight into Fairhope's upcoming Barney Gaston Day, commemorating Lt. Barney Gaston, U.S. Air Force aviator who on August 26, 1944, during WWII, participated in an air offensive to liberate Sivry-Courtry, France from the Nazi Army. He is a Fairhope War hero who is remembered annually in Sivry-Courtry.

August 22 – Mayor Karin Wilson will give us the background story and success of Page and Palette, as one of the most successful Independent Bookstores in the Southeast. It's more than just a bookshop!

August 29 – Peco Forsman, author of She's Bound to be a Goer! will talk about the contribution of Bay Boats to the development of Fairhope and the Eastern Shore. Peco has built many exact scale model bay boats for the city and Single Tax Corporation.

September 5 – Dean Mosher, local artist and historian, will tell the fun and fascinating stories of the Storybook Castles of Fairhope.

September 12 – Helen Garrett will tell about the Lowell family that lived in this area before the Single-Taxer Colonists came and were here when they arrived. The Lowells became supporters of Single Tax and owned some of the earliest businesses of Fairhope.

September 19 – A video will be shown about the history of Fairhope, provided by Clarence Bishop, patriarch of B & B Pecan Company and the regional pecan industry. The movie is not yet titled and is currently being edited for use.

September 26 – Ecumenical Ministries of Baldwin County, Inc. celebrates its Fiftieth Anniversary in 2019! Sally Dean will tell us the history and all about it.

Tea Speakers

Each Thursday 2 p.m. in the Museum Council Chamber

August 1 – Mary Katherine Kilgore will talk about the development of the Eastern Shore Choral Society, it's goals and summarize it's exciting agenda and 2019 – 2020 schedule.

August 8 – Dot Bremer, long-time supporter of the Eastern Shore Institute for Lifelong Learning (ESILL) will tell us about the history of the organization, begun in 1977.

August 15 – Jill Godard and Rusty Godard will give us insight into Fairhope's upcoming Barney Gaston Day, commemorating Lt. Barney Gaston, U.S. Air Force aviator who on August 26, 1944, during WWII, participated in an air offensive to liberate Sivry-Courtry, France from the Nazi Army. He is a Fairhope War hero who is remembered annually in Sivry-Courtry.

August 22 – Mayor Karin Wilson will give us the background story and success of Page and Palette, as one of the most successful Independent Bookstores in the Southeast. It's more than just a bookshop!

August 29 – Peco Forsman, author of She's Bound to be a Goer! will talk about the contribution of Bay Boats to the development of Fairhope and the Eastern Shore. Peco has built many exact scale model bay boats for the city and Single Tax Corporation.

September 5 – Dean Mosher, local artist and historian, will tell the fun and fascinating stories of the Storybook Castles of Fairhope.

September 12 – Helen Garrett will tell about the Lowell family that lived in this area before the Single-Taxer Colonists came and were here when they arrived. The Lowells became supporters of Single Tax and owned some of the earliest businesses of Fairhope.

September 19 – A video will be shown about the history of Fairhope, provided by Clarence Bishop, patriarch of B & B Pecan Company and the regional pecan industry. The movie is not yet titled and is currently being edited for use.

September 26 – Ecumenical Ministries of Baldwin County, Inc. celebrates its Fiftieth Anniversary in 2019! Sally Dean will tell us the history and all about it.