

Tea Speakers

Each Thursday 2 p.m. in the Museum Council Chamber

Oct 3 – Jessica Sawyer-Walker, Director of Economic and Community Development for Fairhope will tell about her job role and upcoming projects in the City.

Oct 10 – Mike Turner – Local musician and songwriter will share songs of Fairhope history he has written over the years.

Oct 17 – Jule Moon – Fairhope author and poet will talk about growing up in this area and Sherds, her book of poems.

– This meeting will be followed by the Annual Friends Meeting - all Friends are encouraged to attend to comply with the State Constitution required quorum to conduct business.

Oct 24 – New Friends President – A new President of the Friends of the Fairhope Museum of History will be elected at the October 17 Meeting. Hint: He's retiring from the James P. Nix Senior Center November 1. He'll share his goals and visions for the Friends.

Oct 31 – Dr. Karyn Tunks, University of South Alabama professor and author of children's books about Jubilees, USS Alabama, and Mardi Gras, will tell us about and perhaps read some of her works.

Nov 7 – LeeAnn Harold – the daughter of the owners of the Christmas Store and Fairhope Pharmacy, will talk about the heritage of those stores and living in Fairhope.

Nov 14 – Museum Director Alan Samry – will tell about Fairhope's Founders Day and the Celebration coming up the next day, Friday, November 15 at the Museum.

Nov 21 - Pam and Tom McCrery will tell about the Daphne Museum of History and its fascinating story as an early part of Eastern Shore history.

Nov 28 – Thanksgiving City holiday. Museum closed. Gobble, gobble!

* Your $2 donation helps support on-going programs *