Attendees:

Gary Gover	Harriet Gutknecht	Sissy Birindelli
Kay Marriott	Donnie Barrett	Joe Birindelli
Linda Jones	Nancy Milford

Homes Tour:

Concerns over damaged landscaping, due to our recent experience with freezing temperatures, has caused several homeowners to back out of the April Homes Tour . Sissy and Joe feel it necessary to postpone the tour until next year. They'll retain their list of interested homeowners for next years event:

- o Dean & Pagan Mosher
- o Suzy & Terry Passman @ # 400 No. Mobile Street
- o The Boyd residence @ #202 Grand Ave.
- o Vicki Day @ #79 Magnolia Ave.
- o Joe & Sissy Birindelli @351 Grand Ave.
- o Suzanne & Steven Winston - c. 1875 home under renovation on the corner of Main & Sibley St., Daphne

Harriet mailed out 31 financial sponsor letters. She has received two checks and is expecting to receive a third from Thomas Hospital. Nancy Wilson will be asked to reimburse the two sponsors: Garden Design Solutions, owned by Paul Fontenot and Custom Millworks. The remaining 28 recipients of these letters will be contacted about the tour postponement. Sherry will put a notice in the next City Sketches about the change.

Harriet contacted City Attorney, Tut Wynne, about the six drawings that the Preservation Committee paid for ($1,500) but never received from Andy Overstreet. Mayor Tim Kant and Lee Webb reviewed the situation and agreed not to pursue the issue because of the additional legal charges that the City would incur. The committee members discussed the possibility of filing with Small Claims Court.

Treasury:

There is currently $30, 565.50 in the treasury.
